Morbio 5 (100)

A decorative initial letter 'B' from a medieval manuscript. The letter is formed by a large square frame with ornate, swirling flourishes at each corner. A smaller square frame is positioned inside the larger one. The top of the letter features a stylized crown or canopy design with three peaks and decorative elements. The entire letter is written in a dark, formal Gothic script.

A decorative floral ornament at the top of the page, featuring a central cross-like shape with intricate scrollwork and floral motifs.
